

You Can Help...

Malala Fund (www.malala.org) is led by Malala Yousafzai and her father to advocate for education for boys and girls all over the world; gather the stories of children who help and are helping; and raise funds to support quality education.

Girls Gone Activist

Youth Activism Project (<http://youthactivismproject.org/>) “There’s no minimum age for leadership.”

The United Nations Foundation’s Girl Up (girlup.org) gives American girls the chance to become world leaders, beginning by creating their own girls clubs.

Girl Rising (girlrising.com) is a film about nine extraordinary girls in Cambodia, Haiti, Nepal, Egypt, Ethiopia, India, Peru, Sierra Leone, and Afghanistan – each one battling many obstacles to go to school.

Global Campaign for Education (<http://www.campaignforeducation.org/en/>) works to improve education for both boys and girls, all over the world.

Ban Bossy (<http://banbossy.com/>) A Girl Scout campaign encouraging girls to lead

Giving Square <https://www.thegivingsquare.org/> curriculum to advance the ideals of quality and civic responsibility through philanthropy, school activities and family field trips